BOARD OF TRADE PLANS

The Ozone Park Board of Trade has under consideration the use of the Assembly room in P. S. 58, Walker avenue, for its meetings once a month. Oscar W. Svenson and Peter F. Albrecht, are to confer with the Board of Education and see if they will let them have same on a stipulated night, monthly, they to pay for the electric light used, also to see that the room is cleaned up after each meeting. If permission is granted there is no doubt in the minds of a majority of members that the membership will increase, and that several lectures on public matters of interest to all the citizens of our community can be had; and that then there can be no excuse for the members not attending the meetings.

SOCIAL NOTES

RECEPTION TO RECTOR

The Rev. Francis Vinton Baer, rector of St. Matthew's P. E. Church, Woodhaven, was tendered an informal reception Wednesday evening, last week, in the parish house. Mr. Baer came to the parish from Christ Church, Sag Harbor, in September, and the reception was held in order that he and his wife might become better acquainted with the members of the parish. The occasion was a most enjoyable one.

HELD OLD FASHIONED RAG BEE

Miss E. A. Kloch gave an old fashioned rag carpet sewing bee at her home on Jerome street last Friday evening for the members of the Ladies' Aid of Trinity Church, Arlington and Schenck avenues. The Aid is busily engaged in work for the parish fair to be held the first week in December and Mrs. Kloch is chairman of the rag department. The women meet in order to sew rags that are to be woven into rugs, to be on sale at the fair.

Everything was in keeping with the old fashioned idea of a rag bee, and to make the setting more realistic, Miss Florence Knapp, dressed in Pilgrim-day costume, sat at a real old spinning wheel, while the guests partook of gingerbread, apples, cider and peppermint candy.

FRANK REHMAN SURPRISED

On Monday evening, November 4th, about 8:30 o'clock, a surprise party was "sprung" on Frank Rehman, Jr., at his residence, 26 Shaw avenue, by a host of his friends, the occasion being his 16th birthday. It surely was a complete surprise to him as he had no idea that anything out of the ordinary was to occur. The night was spent in singing, dancing and playing games and all sorts of fun. The instrumental music was furnished by Frank Rehman, Sr., and Frank Rehman, Jr., both violinists; Mrs. Frank Rehman, pianist; A. Radcliffe, an old-time banjo player; Miss Eleanor DuQuoy, piano; John Fredericks, violin and Miss Viola Fredericks, piano. The rooms were beautifully decorated with red, white and blue. About 1 a. m. everybody filed into the dining room to be confronted by a large table nicely decorated with the National colors and loaded down with good substantial "eats" to which all did ample justice. After supper the fun was resumed. In the donkey game the first prize was won by George Milhogen and the second prize by Miss Viola Fredericks. Frank Jr. received many beautiful presents in token of the high esteem in which he is held by his numerous friends. The "jolliment" went on till 4:30 a. m. Tuesday, when the party broke up with every one vowing it was an affair which they will long remember with fond thoughts.

Among those present were the Misses Eleanor Du Quoy, Florence Wanamaker, Gracie and Wilhelmina Totze, Helen Nulla, Mildred Rehman, Edna Brienbach, Viola Fredericks, Harriet Rehman, Violet Washwood, Gertrude Hickson; Messrs. Geo. Sussman, J. Becker, Wallace Cook, Jr., Walter Busch, Bradley Strong, Freddy Zepp, 3rd, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rehman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zepp, Jr., A. Radcliffe and others.

MRS. W. J. GUBITZ

ENTERTAINED SOLDIERS

Saturday afternoon Mrs. W. J. Gubitz took a number of Woodhaven friends and some of the New York soldiers boys to Fort Tilden for an interesting visit. Through the kindness of the Knights of Columbus, and men at the fort, the party was taken to and from the fort in a K. of C. machine. The ladies took home-made cake and some of the boys cooked the coffee. As a number of the boys are Westerners, the table was set in a unique cowboy style. Everybody enjoyed watching the hydroplanes and dirigibles ascending and descending, also singing and dancing in K. of C. hall. After dark all went back to the home of Mrs. Gubitz, where more eats, singing and dancing were enjoyed.

THE NONPAREIL GIRLS' HALLOWE'EN

On Saturday evening, November 2, The Nonpareil Girls gave a Halloween party in honor of sailors, at the home of Miss Gertrude V. Reilly, 145 Rector street. The rooms were handsomely decorated with Halloween trimmings, and the hall appeared very spooky, having ghosts hanging around, which caused a lot of sport.

George Motz rendered selections on the piano which started everyone "jazzing." Miss May Sutherland entertained by giving a solo; Misses Nellie Palmer, Gertrude Reilly and Ed McCoy gave an exhibition Hula, Hula. The girls wore the Hula costumes as they danced at "Camp Wopowog" while on their vacation one summer.

At midnight the guests marched downstairs to the dining room where a collation was awaiting them. Games and dancing were the main features of the evening. The boys left in the wee hours of the morning assuring the girls they had spent an enjoyable evening.

Among those present were Misses Nellie Palmer, Katherine Stall, May Sutherland, Emma Warchter, Winifred Cantwell, Gertrude Reilly, Peter Farrel, Ed McCoy, George Motz, Frank Murry, Fred Gas, Ed Smith, Mrs. Arsell, Mr. and Mrs. Hartman, Baby Gertrude, Mr. and Mrs. Reilly, and Master James Reilly.

HELD HALLOWE'EN SOCIABLE

Hallowe'en was celebrated by the members and the friends of St. Thomas's Unit League of Catholic Women and everyone who attended pronounced the affair a very enjoyable one.

The Auditorium on Boyd avenue was decorated befitting the occasion and the ghosts, who were members appointed to meet the guests at the door, received donations that will add greatly to the Christmas fund for the boys of the parish who are in the service. The sale of apples on a stick caused a good deal of merriment, and together with the homemade cake and coffee served, helped make the affair a success.

ITALIANS CELEBRATE PEACE

On Monday afternoon the Italian colony of Ozone Park held a large parade through the principal streets of Ozone Park and Woodhaven in celebration of the Armistice having been signed by the Germans, the only regrettable feature being the lately abdicated warlord was not able to see himself carried through the streets on a truck gaily decorated with the flags of all the Allies, he being the cynosure of all eyes, in a beautifully decorated black coffin with silver handles captioned, "Here Lies Kaiser Wilhelm II, of Schleswig-Holstein the last of the Hohenzollerns, that will ever grace the throne as Emperor of Prussia, or the Kaiser of Germany." However when one thinks that at his dictation there have been over 10,000,000 lives sacrificed within the past four years, and reads that he and his six sons have fled to Holland without even receiving a scratch, it would seem mere mockery that he who always said "Mich und Gott" should have been able to get away from his people from whose eyes the scales have dropped, alas when too late.

KAISER A "BIG STIFF"

Private Jacob Maute, of the 303d Infantry, A. E. F., writes to his friend Mrs. Nardin, urging her to send many letters to her son, Louis, for, says Jake, "nothing cheers a soldier like letters from home." Jake says he is anxious to put a dent in the Kaiser, but at the rate the Germans are running away, it is hard to do much damage to them. He says the boys regard the Kaiser only as a "big stiff" anyway.

Miss J. Moore of Sherman street, has returned from a visit with her daughter in Boston, Mass.

G. W. BONNER HAS SOME GOOD STORIES OF WAR

Young East New York In Service
With Pershing's Forces

BOYS' BRIGADE LIEUTENANT

One of the young men from East New York who is doing his bit in the war is Chauffeur George W. Bonner, Jr., of the Fifty-ninth Heavy Artillery, with the American Expeditionary Forces in France. He has written an interesting letter to his father, George Bonner, of 186

Vermont street, in which he writes that he is in good health and that when he comes home he will have many interesting stories to relate.

Chauffeur Bonner was a graduate of Public School 73 and he also attended the Commercial High School. He was also a member of Beecher's Memorial Church and served as a lieutenant in the Boys' Brigade. He was employed in the Morris Park office of the Long Island Railroad and enlisted in the Army on March 27, 1918. He trained at Fort Terry and Fort Hamilton. His great grandfather and grandfather served in the Civil War and an uncle served in the Spanish-American War. His grandmother, Mrs. A. Bonner, lives at 176 Somers street.

OFFICERS WILL GET UNIFORMS AT COST

Plans by which army officers may get uniforms at cost are now being worked out by the Quartermaster's Department, and after December 1 the officers may secure the uniforms at cost or secure the material from the government at cost and have it made up by any tailor they select.

A list of reputable tailors in all parts of the country who have agreed to make the uniforms at reasonable rates is being prepared by the department. Tailors will not be asked to make any fixed price, it being recognized that difference in workmanship necessitates proportionate difference in prices. All, however, are expected to do the work at rates as cheap as is compatible with their establishments.

The department is taking steps to safeguard the tailors from bad accounts, this being an important factor in enabling them to do the work cheaply.

SCOUTS PARADE

One of the first organized peace parades was that of the thousands of Boy Scouts of America in Greater New York.

The scouts mobilized on the Sheep Meadow in Central Park at 2 p. m. Tuesday and marched down Fifth avenue to Washington Square, starting at 3 p. m.

The hundreds of banners they carried were instructive—telling of the work that is yet to be done.
